NNC Safeguarding and Privacy Commitments

- Children will only be photographed or filmed appropriately and during suitable NNC activities.
- Children's personal details will not be published, and adults will only be identified in accordance with their consent preferences.
- NNC official photography, filming and live streaming will only be undertaken by authorised persons and managed securely.
- The NNC will respect valid "do not photograph" or "do not record" requests wherever reasonably practicable.
- Members, parents, guardians and spectators must respect the privacy of others and obtain appropriate consent before sharing images or recordings.
- Any safeguarding or privacy concerns should be reported to the NNC Secretary or a member of the NNC Committee.

Equality Diversity and Inclusion

The Northern Newfoundland Club (NNC) is committed to fostering a welcoming, inclusive and respectful environment for all members, volunteers, participants, exhibitors and visitors.
The NNC will not tolerate discrimination, harassment, victimisation, bullying or exclusion on any unlawful ground, including age, disability, sex, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, or sexual orientation.
All individuals attending or participating in NNC activities are expected to conduct themselves in a courteous, respectful and inclusive manner and to always treat others with dignity and consideration.
The NNC reserves the right to take appropriate action where behaviour is considered inconsistent with these principles, the Club Rules, Code of Ethics or any other NNC policy.

Data Protection

The Northern Newfoundland Club (NNC) is committed to protecting personal information and processing it lawfully, fairly and securely in accordance with data protection legislation.
By ticking the consent box on page 1 of the membership form, you agree that the NNC may:

- Hold and maintain your membership records securely.
- Store and use your contact details for membership administration purposes.
- Communicate with you regarding membership matters, NNC events, AGM documentation, newsletters and other legitimate NNC business.
- Share your details with relevant NNC officers where necessary for the administration of Club activities and services.

The Northern Newfoundland Club (NNC) does not use members personal information for third-party marketing purposes and will only use your information for legitimate purposes in accordance with its Privacy Notice.
